1	For purposes of this policy, misconduct is defined as follows:
2
3	1. Fabrication, falsification, plagiarism, or other practices that seriously deviate from
4	those that are commonly accepted within the scientific community for proposing,
5	conducting, or reporting research. It does not include honest error or honest differences
6	in interpretations or judgment of data.
7	2. Misappropriation of others' ideas, i.e., the unauthorized use of privileged information
8	(such as violation of confidentiality in peer review), however obtained.
9	3. Failure to meet University and/or federal policies regarding use of human or animal
10	subjects in research.
11	Failure to meet legal requirements governing research.
	5.
